

| Ports | Eligible Users | Requirements | |
|--|--|--|--|
| Qingmao Port | Mainland residents (aged 7 or above and 1.2 metres or above in height) | Holding a Permit for Travelling to and from Hong Kong and Macao or an e-Permit for Travelling to and from Hong Kong and Macao for Official Purposes, and having given authorization during their application for the above documents to the Hong Kong and Macao authorities to use their biometric data for automated clearance. | |
| | Macao Residents (aged 7 or above and 1.2 metres or above in height) | Holding a Macao Resident Identity Card and a Mainland Travel Permit for Hong Kong and Macao Residents (including non-Chinese citizens), and having registered for the automated passenger clearance service of the Mainland. | |
| | Hong Kong Residents (aged 11 or above and 1.2 metres or above in height) | Holding a Hong Kong Permanent Identity Card and a Mainland Travel Permit for Hong Kong and Macao Residents (including non-Chinese citizens), and having registered for the automated passenger clearance services of Macao and of the Mainland. | |
| | According to the documents of the State Council, currently only the Hong Kong residents, Macao residents and Mainland residents holding the above-mentioned documents are allowed to use the Qingmao Port for immigration clearance. | | |
| Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macao Bridge Port - Zhuhai-Macao Passenger Clearance Hall | Mainland residents (aged 7 or above and 1.2 metres or above in height) | Holding a Permit for Travelling to and from Hong Kong and Macao or an e-Permit for Travelling to and from Hong Kong and Macao for Official Purposes, and having given authorization during their application for the above documents to the Hong Kong and Macao authorities to use their biometric data for automated clearance. | |
| | Macao Residents (aged 7 or above and 1.2 metres or above in height) | Holding a Macao Resident Identity Card and a Mainland Travel Permit for Hong Kong and Macao Residents (including non-Chinese citizens), and having registered for the automated passenger clearance service of the Mainland. | |
| | Hong Kong Residents (aged 11 or above and 1.2 metres or above in height) | Holding a Hong Kong Permanent Identity Card and a Mainland Travel Permit for Hong Kong and Macao Residents (including non-Chinese citizens), and having registered for the automated passenger clearance services of Macao and of the Mainland. | |
| | Taiwan Residents (aged 7 or above and 1.2 metres or above in height) | Holding a Mainland Travel Permit for Taiwan Residents, and having registered for the automated passenger clearance services of Macao and of the Mainland. | |
| Hengqin Port - Passenger Clearance Hall - Immigration Clearance Hall for On-board Passengers | Mainland residents (aged 7 or above and 1.2 metres or above in height) | Holding a Permit for Travelling to and from Hong Kong and Macao or an e-Permit for Travelling to and from Hong Kong and Macao for Official Purposes, and having given authorization during their application for the above documents to the Hong Kong and Macao authorities to use their biometric data for automated clearance. | |
| | Macao Residents (aged 7 or above and 1.2 metres or above in height) | I | Holding a Macao Resident Identity Card and a Mainland Travel Permit for Hong Kong and Macao Residents (including non-Chinese citizens), and having registered for the automated passenger clearance service of the Mainland. |
| | | II | Holding a Macao Resident Identity Card and a foreign passport (in possession of a Foreign Permanent Resident ID Card of the PRC), and having registered for the automated passenger clearance services of Macao and of the Mainland. |
| | | III | Holding a Macao Resident Identity Card and a foreign e-passport (in possession of a Foreigner's Residence Permit of the PRC valid for over 6 months), and having registered for the automated passenger clearance services of Macao and of the Mainland. |

| | | | |
|--|--|----|--|
| | | IV | Holding a Macao Resident Identity Card and a foreign e-passport (in possession of a multiple-entry Chinese visa valid for over 6 months), and having registered for the automated passenger clearance services of Macao and of the Mainland. |
| | Hong Kong Residents (aged 11 or above and 1.2 metres or above in height) | | Holding a Hong Kong Permanent Identity Card and a Mainland Travel Permit for Hong Kong and Macao Residents (including non-Chinese citizens), and having registered for the automated passenger clearance services of Macao and of the Mainland. |
| | Taiwan Residents (aged 7 or above and 1.2 metres or above in height) | | Holding a Mainland Travel Permit for Taiwan Residents, and having registered for the automated passenger clearance services of Macao and of the Mainland. |
| | Foreigners (aged 7 or above and 1.2 metres or above in height) | I | Holding a foreign passport (in possession of a Foreign Permanent Resident ID Card of the PRC), and having met the requirements for exemption from Prior Authorization to Enter and visa for entry to Macao*, and having registered for the automated passenger clearance services of Macao and of the Mainland. * See Article 9 of Macao Administrative Regulation No. 38/2021 for reference. The requirements for exemption from visa and Prior Authorization to Enter include the following: nationals of countries exempted by the Chief Executive as announced in the Gazette https://www.gov.mo/zh-hant/services/ps-1474/ps-1474b/ , persons in possession of Special Authorization to Stay of Macao (non-resident workers, dependants of non-resident workers, non-resident students, etc.), Hong Kong Identity Card holders, etc. |
| | | II | Holding a foreign e-passport (in possession of a Foreigner's Residence Permit of the PRC valid for over 6 months), and having met the requirements for exemption from Prior Authorization to Enter and visa for entry to Macao*, and having registered for the automated passenger clearance services of Macao and of the Mainland * See Article 9 of Macao Administrative Regulation No. 38/2021 for reference. The requirements for exemption from visa and Prior Authorization to Enter include the following: nationals of countries exempted by the Chief Executive as announced in the Gazette https://www.gov.mo/zh-hant/services/ps-1474/ps-1474b/ , persons in possession of Special Authorization to Stay of Macao (non-resident workers, dependants of non-resident workers, non-resident students, etc.), Hong Kong Identity Card holders, etc. |
| Hengqin Port- Joint One-stop Vehicle Lanes | Mainland residents (To be used by drivers only) | I | Holding a Permit for Travelling to and from Hong Kong and Macao (with a valid multiple endorsement to Macao), and having given authorization during their application for the above documents to the Hong Kong and Macao authorities to use their biometric data for automated clearance. |
| | | II | Holding a (electronic/non-electronic) Permit for Travelling to and from Hong Kong and Macao for Official Purposes (with a valid multiple endorsement to Macao), registration for the automated passenger clearance services of Macao and of the Mainland for holders of a non-electronic Permit. |
| | Macao Residents (To be used by drivers only) | I | Holding a Macao Resident Identity Card and a Mainland Travel Permit for Hong Kong and Macao Residents (including non-Chinese citizens), and having registered for the automated passenger clearance service of the Mainland. |
| | | II | Holding a Macao Resident Identity Card and a foreign passport (in possession of a Foreign Permanent Resident ID Card of the PRC), and having registered for the automated passenger clearance services of Macao |

| | | | |
|--|---|-----|--|
| | | | and of the Mainland. |
| | | III | Holding a Macao Resident Identity Card and a foreign e-passport (in possession of a Foreigner's Residence Permit of the PRC valid for over 6 months), and having registered for the automated passenger clearance services of Macao and of the Mainland. |
| | Hong Kong Residents (To be used by drivers only) | | Holding a Hong Kong Permanent Identity Card and a Mainland Travel Permit for Hong Kong and Macao Residents (including non-Chinese citizens), and having registered for the automated passenger clearance services of Macao and of the Mainland. |